

The word "resume" comes from the French meaning "to summarize", so a resume is not an autobiography. Think of your resume as an advertisement about yourself. Keep in mind that employers generally spend only 10 seconds to scan a resume; therefore, your "ad" must quickly identify for the employer: