

2 2

2

!

2 2

(630) 430- 042

(504) 520-5240

Xavier University and Transdev launch new workforce development partnership

New Orleans, LA – Transdev, a leading provider of workforce development solutions, has announced a new partnership with Xavier University, a leading HBCU (Historically Black College or University) in the region. The partnership will focus on providing training and development opportunities for students and graduates of Xavier University, helping them gain the skills and experience needed to succeed in the workforce.

Transdev is committed to investing in the future of the workforce and is proud to partner with Xavier University to provide students with the training and development they need to succeed. The partnership will provide students with access to Transdev's extensive network of training and development programs, including on-the-job training, apprenticeships, and internships. This partnership is a key part of Transdev's commitment to workforce development and is a testament to the company's dedication to providing high-quality training and development opportunities for all.

Transdev is a leading provider of workforce development solutions, and this partnership with Xavier University is a key part of our commitment to investing in the future of the workforce. We are proud to partner with Xavier University to provide students with the training and development they need to succeed. This partnership is a testament to our dedication to providing high-quality training and development opportunities for all.

About Xavier University of Louisiana

!
About Transdev

[Redacted content]

[Redacted content]